  - (ii) “Fraudulent practice” includes a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the Procuring and Disposing Entity, and includes collusive practices among Providers prior to or after bid submission designed to establish bid prices at artificial, non-competitive levels and to deprive the Procuring and Disposing Entity of the benefits of free and open competition;
- (b) will reject a recommendation for award if it determines that the Bidder recommended for award has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the Contract; and
- (c) will suspend a Provider from engaging in any AORW-U procurement proceeding for a stated period of time, if it at any time determines that the Provider has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing, an AORW-U’s contract.

1.3.2 In pursuit of the policy, AORW-U requires representatives of the Suppliers and Service Providers to adhere to the relevant codes of ethical conduct. # EVICTED LUWERO WOMAN RESCUED

By Frederick Kiwanuka

The lands state minister, Sam Mayanja, has reinstated a 94-year-old woman on her kibanja, which had allegedly been sold fraudulently to a land dealer by her grandchildren in Luwero district.

Gertrude Namirimu, a resident of Bajjo village near Bombo town in Luwero, had lived on her kibanja measuring 1.6 acres for over 40 years. Namirimu's mother and grandmother were also buried on the same land.

But this did not deter her two grandsons; Solomon Babyesiza and Kulannema Atuhaire, from registering the same kibanja in their names before they sold it to Emmanuel Sewaya, a local land dealer. After buying the land from Namirimu's grandsons, Sewaya subdivided it into several plots, which he sold to unsuspecting buyers.

Namirimu said her two grandsons fraudulently registered her kibanja in their names and acquired a title, before selling it to Sewaya.

She is a genuine tenant on the land owned by the Kisingiri family, whose administrator is Zakaria Kisingiri Kizito.

Namirimu said her grandsons secured a title after approaching Kizito, before selling the land to Sewaya.

Namirimu reported the matter to the Luwero resident district commissioner's (RDC) office upon discovering the fraud, and she was advised to place a caveat on the land. Thereafter,

MINISTER'S DIRECTIVE

Lands state minister Sam Mayanja and his entourage established during the locus visit that several individuals to whom land dealer Emmanuel Sewaya sold plots had built houses. The minister declared that Sewaya and the individuals to whom he sold land bought 'air'.

"You have a title, but not possession. Go and tell those people who sold you the land to refund your money," Mayanja said.

He directed the Luwero RDC, Abel Bakunda, to reinstate the old woman on her land, saying her right to possess the kibanja was guaranteed by the Constitution and the presidential directive against illegal evictions.

all the developments on the land were halted.

While on a locus visit to Bajjo village on Friday, declared all the transactions on the land null and void, and reinstated Namirimu.

The land dealer (Sewaya) kibanja got reinstated.

said he bought the land from Namirimu's two grandsons, (Babyesiza and Atuhaire) and that it was registered in their names.

Sewaya said he acquired the title after paying sh40m, which he later subdivided into plots and sold.

Mayanja also asked the Luwero RDC Abel Bakunda to investigate Sewaya and other people who were implicated in the land deal, with a possibility of charging them with land grabbing.

After the locus visit, Mayanja also addressed residents at Namayamba village in Nyimbwa sub-county, where he directed that all residents who were evicted from their

Malawi Airlines launches direct flights to Entebbe

By Eddie Ssejjoba

Malawi Airlines is scheduled to start direct flights between Entebbe International Airport and Kamuzu International Airport in the capital Lilongwe, with the aim of boosting trade between the two countries.

In 2023, Uganda's total exports to Malawi were valued at sh11.6b and have increased at an annual rate of 9.54% from 2018 to 2023.

The Malawi Airlines Uganda station manager, Lillian Kyobutungi, said effective December 15, 2025, the country's national carrier will make direct flights from Lilongwe to Entebbe. It will operate four times a week.

"This route is designed to enhance regional connectivity and foster stronger ties in trade, tourism, and cultural exchange between Malawi and Uganda, as well as the broader southern and eastern African region," Kyobutungi said.

She said the company has been making chartered flights due to the increasing travels and trade between the two countries, until they decided to launch direct flights.

Uganda's top exports to Malawi include concentrated milk and packaged medicaments, while Malawi's exports to Uganda include iron stoves, iron scrap and raw tobacco.

Godfrey Kirumira, the chairperson of the Kampala-based Kwagalana group, which unites the city's top businesspeople, said Ugandans are spreading so fast across the globe looking for trade opportunities.

"We have serious and well-focused businesspeople. I am not surprised that Malawi saw it fit to start direct flights to Entebbe," Kirumira, who is also the Namibian consul general to Uganda, said.

Kirumira said they were also lobbying President Yoweri Museveni to allow Uganda Airlines to start direct flights to Namibia to serve the growing number of people.
